

LADY ANNE'S NEEDLEWORK RETREATS

Explore your embroidery passion in the company of experts www.crewelwork.com

Lady Anne's Needlework Retreats were created by Phillipa Turnbull as a means of sharing her passion for the exquisite and rarely seen embroideries that she has found tucked away in the attics of castles for which they were made. Phillipa's enthusiasm for researching, conserving, and sharing her knowledge about these textile treasures, and her ability to bring together the talented experts that she has been fortunate to work with throughout her career, have enabled her to develop a series of wonderful experiences that enrich the needlworker's soul. Join us in 2015!

THE SCOTTISH HIGHLANDS TOUR

June 19-30 2015

Join us on an exciting journey of discovery to explore the remote Highlands of Scotland and enjoy access to rare and beautiful historic needlework collections in spectacular castles such as Blair, Dunrobin and Glamis. During this tour, you will learn the “how, when and where” of embroidery in Scotland from the 17th - early 20th Century through a series of private visits to castles and country houses as well as through 12 hours of practical tuition with our expert tutors and guest lecturers. You will engage with our experts in developing your own understanding of the historic designs and techniques seen in traditional Scottish embroidery and develop an appreciation of their importance during Scotland’s turbulent past. Experience the unique qualities of Scottish Highland hospitality in our favourite luxury hotels, and in castles and pretty villages. Be enchanted by the dramatic scenery and textile heritage of this beautiful country.

Signature Moments:

-  Visit the private embroideries of Cecilia, Countess of Strathmore at Glamis Castle, and Evelyn Countess of Atholl at Blair Castle. Take tea at Ardverickie House, location of Salmon Fishing on the Yemen and Monarch of The Glen
-  Recreate, in Crewel Work, the Crown, Rose and Thistle design featured on HRH The Queen Mother’s set of bed hangings in her childhood home, Glamis Castle, with specialist tutor Phillipa Turnbull
-  Study the work of Phoebe Anna Traquair and stitch a design from her iconic work, “The Progress of a Soul” during 6 hours of tuition from researcher and specialist tutor Meredith Willett
-  Travel in the company of professional embroidery specialists and learn from expert lecturers

Duration: 11 days, 11 nights | Price: £5,850 | Non-stitching partners welcome

ARTS & CRAFTS IN THE LAKE DISTRICT

August 21-30 2015

Join us for an intensive 9-day, workshop-focused retreat in the beautiful English Lake District with three specialist tutors. Study design and technique from the Arts & Crafts movement during 30 hours tuition with Royal school of Needlework graduates Jenny Adin-Christie (Whitework) and Nikki Jarvis (Silk, Goldwork and William Morris expert) and historic Crewel Work expert Phillipa Turnbull. Enjoy private access to exquisite examples of needlework at Arts & Crafts lakeside houses such as Brantwood and Blackwell. Spend relaxing evenings chatting to likeminded needlework enthusiasts and take in the breath-taking scenery of this beautiful national park. This tour is for those who wish to study technique intensely and those who enjoy spending extended periods of time with tutor supervision.

Signature Moments:

-  Recreate an Arts & Crafts design from Blackwell House with Royal School of Needlework graduate Nicola Jarvis. Study the original design during a visit to the house (featured above)
-  Recreate an original whitework design, inspired by John Ruskin's collection, with Royal School of Needlework graduate Jenny Adin-Christie. Enjoy a tour of Brantwood House, Ruskin's wonderful Arts & Crafts home
-  Take the opportunity to visit Beatrix Potter's cottage, Hill Top, and William Wordsworth's home, Dove Cottage. Walk along the lake and visit the picturesque lakeside village of Bowness-on-Windermere
-  Relax for the duration of your stay in the luxurious Lowood House Hotel on the edge of Windermere. Hear specialist speakers on the Arts & Crafts movement in between intensive practical sessions

Duration: 9 days, 8 nights | Price: £3,800 | Non-stitching partners are welcome

LADY ANNE'S NEEDLEWORK RETREAT

Sept 19-29 2015

The return of our over-subscribed 2014 retreat based on embroidery from the life and times of Lady Anne Clifford. During this 10-day retreat we combine technical tuition with castle and museum visits to see exquisite embroidery collections in private ownership. Starting in Phillipa's home town of Appleby-in-Westmorland, this, our original retreat, will take you west to the Cumbria coast to view the exquisite and vast embroidery collections at Muncaster Castle before travelling north over the Scottish border through the lowlands to Traquair House and Edinburgh, enjoying intimate study of needlework from some of the finest collections in Britain. Phillipa Turnbull, Meredith Willett and guest tutor Jacqui Carey will teach you embroidery techniques. Join us in 2015 for another enriching embroidery experience.

Signature Moments:

-  Learn the techniques required to recreate an historic design connected to the life of Lady Anne Clifford (pictured above) during 10 hours of tuition with specialist tutors Phillipa Turnbull, Meredith Willett, and guest tutor Jacqui Carey
-  Dine at Muncaster Castle at the special invitation of The Pennington Family and enjoy private study of their important textile collections
-  Enjoy a private audience and question and answer session with Susan Kay-Williams, Chairman of The Royal School of Needlework
-  Travel across the heart of The Lake District and north over the Scottish Border to Edinburgh. Enjoy scenery made famous by Beatrix Potter, William Wordsworth, and Robert Burns

Duration: 10 days, 10 nights | Price: £5,500 | Participants only

Your Health

It is important that you inform us of any health issues or food allergies, etc. at the time of booking. Wheelchair users should please note that, due to the historic focus of our Retreats, most of the venues are extremely old and do not have good accessibility. If you have mobility or health issues and are not sure to what extent these might affect your enjoyment of the vacation, please contact The Organisers to discuss.

Travel Arrangements

It is your responsibility to make all travel arrangements to the Retreat in time for the welcome meeting on the first day, and from the Retreat after the final breakfast on the last day. If there is demand for it, we can arrange group pick-ups from nearby airports. For specific travel advice, please speak to the team directly at enquiries@ladyannesneedlework.com

Alterations to the programme

The Organisers reserve the right to make additions, alterations and/or substitutions, without notice, to the itinerary/tutors or any other part of the programme in the event of unforeseen circumstances, or to improve the student experience.

Liability and Insurance

The Organisers have used their best endeavours to ensure that all goods, services and facilities provided in respect of the Retreat have been supplied, delivered, arranged or otherwise made available by properly qualified companies, organisations and individuals. They cannot, however, accept any responsibility for damage, loss or injury, howsoever caused, to students or those accompanying them, or their belongings, as a consequence of their attendance during the days spent at the Retreat or at any of the Special Excursions or Events, or in the event that any part of the programme cannot be delivered.

In the event that The Organisers have to cancel the Retreat, their liability shall be limited to refunding all monies they have received up to the time of cancellation.

All students are advised to take out their own insurance, in respect of, but not limited to, travel, cancellation, loss of payments made, medical and personal effects, etc.

The importance of doing this at the earliest possible stage cannot be over-emphasised.
